With thanks to Mark and all the hard working staff at my Brookes Print Workshop
First Printing 7th March 2008

I'VE WORKED AS A BUTCHER,
I'VE WORKED IN A PETSHOP

I'VE WORKED IN A 24 HR
GARAGE, DAY AND NIGHT

PAPER ROUND, MILK ROUND
CHARITY SHOP, GALLERY HOP

I'VE DONE SECURITY, SOLD TVs
FLYPOSTING AND TRANSCRIPTION

AND WORKING WITH THE PUBLIC,
WELL ITS LIKE THE TIME I WORKED AT A NURSERY.

BUT MY FAVOURITE
JOB, WAS WORKING
TO YOUR RECIPROCATATION

I was looking at the rain.

You know the way
when it rains
and then the sun comes out

and the rain it looks all sparkly on the tarmac.

...I dunno it
just made me
think of you.

THEY CALL THEIRS

AND THEN I'M STEALING
THIS F*CKING PEN.

Don McLean

(pronounced Don Mick-Clane)

When I was a lad I was pals with Don McLean

He played (course, I said 'was'. I'll get to that later).

He played guitar. He could play 'American Pie' and 'Vincent' back in the days before over-plays' annoyance.

He liked to play a lot. We went out with the youth club.

Played some cracker hockey too...

WE WERE LIKE SOUL BROTHERS. I NEVER REMEMBER FEELING UNCOMFORTABLE AROUND HIM.

AND OF COURSE WE HAD SIMILAR TASTES IN COMEDY. ENDLESSLY RE-HASHING OLD VIC REEVES AND SEAN HUGHES ROUTINES..

DON McLEAN IS ENGLAND'S TOP NAVIGATOR AND ALL ROUND TOP YOGHURT SALESMAN. HE ALSO ENJOYS SAILING YACHTS AND PLAYING GOLF BY HIS FIVE ACRE MANSION WITH HIS WIFE CINDI WHO NO. IS JUST IMAGINARY

Don liked to play guitar, a lot. He played covers mostly. Hendrix, U2, Nirvana, Pearl Jam. He could play about four albums worth of REM tunes.

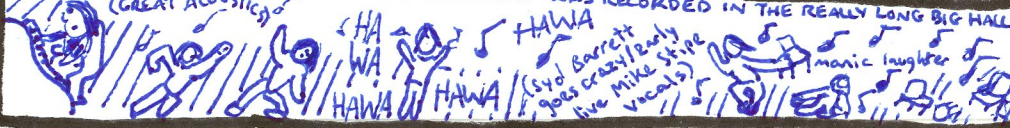

WE AND I GOT LEFT TO DO OUR THING IN THE CHURCH HALL AFTER THE MEETING AT FOUR. OFTEN WE DIDN'T LEAVE UNTIL WELL DARK.

I HAD A GOOD SIZED REM BOOTLEG VINYL COLLECTION I'D LEND HIM. ONE DAY HE CAME THROUGH THE DOOR WITH 'FABLES' THE ONE ALBUM I COULDN'T FIND.

nice one REM FABLES

WE'D EVEN COMPOSE OUR OWN STUFF. 'CAULDRON' WAS RECORDED IN THE REALLY LONG BIG HALL (GREAT ACOUSTICS)
